ABOUT Plays and Players By BIDE DUDLEY

ARENCE W. WILLETTS, who recently produced Zellah Covington's new play, "The Simp," has taken charge of Fritzi Scheff's forthcoming production and will guide its destinies. Miss Scheft is to star in "Husbands Guarantsed," a musical farce, opening in Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 4. Jefferson De Angelis is featured in the cast. George Anderson, nusband of the star, was to have been the producer and manager, but for reasons best known to Mr. Willetts and himself. Mr. Anderson has retired. Miss Scheft will play Syracuse after Rochester, then the Garrick Theatre, Philadelphia, for two weeks, after which Mr. Willetts hopes to get a Broadway house for his production. Incidentally, it is interesting to know that associated with Mr. Willetts in his theatrical operations is a young worken, who used to be an actress. She is Louise Alchel, formerly of Denver. In George M. Cohan's revival of "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway" three years ago, she was the ingenue. She and Mr. Willetts have offices in the Longacre Building and her desk appears to be just as big and important as his. In other words, Miss Alchel is a partner in the Willetts theatrical ventures. its destinies. Miss Scheft is to star

MISS ADAMS TO RETURN.

Maude Ad ims will close her season in "The Little Minister" to-night at Norfolk and will return to New York to-morrow. She will immediately take up the work of rehearsing her rext starring vehicle, "The Kiss of Cinderella," by Barrie.

LEE FOR CONGRESS.

This column is no place for politics.

Nevertheless we feel we have an announcement that must be made. It concerns Junes Fenimore Lee, theatrical writer and erstwhile theatrianager. An organization is being formed at the corner of Forty-third Street and Seventh Avenue to be called the James Fenimore Lee Association and its object will be to put Mr. Lee in Congress. He's often passed through Washington and now it looks as though he'll stop there a while.

Mr. Lee is a man everybody likes.

Mr. Lee is a man everybody likes. He is a Broadway character. During the days of the Follies Bergere it was he who gained much fane by calling up the writer of this column and antonnels.

up the writer of this column and anhouncing:

"Here's some news for you, Dud.
There's a fire next door to the Follies
Boogery."

We're for James Fenimore Lee, All our influence with the voters at Forty-third Street and Seventh Avenue shall be his. If necessary to strengthen that influence we'll go up there and buy a couple of times.

PRETTY USHER WEDS.

Our matrimonial reporter has just advised us that Millie Hanker, a pretty usher at the Forty-fourth Street Theatre, and Willie Ohmes, ar electrician at the Winter Garden, visited the preacher man last night and were reduced to one. She has resigned at the theatre in order to take care of Willie.

BY WAY OF DIVERSION.

BY WAY OF DIVERSION.

I always hate to get a shine upon these little shoes of mine because the man who does the work—a Greek. Italian, Hun or Turk—is always full of energy and uses so much force on me that, though I cuss and look forlorn, the villain will not spare my corn. I have a little corn, you know, that's staked a claim out on my toe, and when the shine man works on me I tell him he must careful be. He grins to show he understands and

STOCK JOKE GOES WRONG.

D. Frank Dodge, scenic artist, lives in Mount Vernon, but as a joke he has always claimed to be the Chief of the Peiham Fire Department. To tell the truth, Mr. Dodge, until recently, couldn't have sworn that the P. F. D. existed. Now let's go on with the story!

Mr. Dodge was on a train bound for Montreal the other night. Going into the smoker, he took a seat by the side of a well-dressed man. Soon the two were discussing various subjects.

"By the way," said the man, after ten minutes, "my name is Black. "By the way," said the man, after ten minutes, "my name is Black. May I ask yours?"

"Sure!" said Mr. Dodge. "I'm D. Frank Dodge, Chief of the Peiham over he will return to the trenches.

"GOSSIP.

Eddie Cantor sang a new song tat the song a low mode and a new song called "Come On Over Here" at the "Midnight Frolic" hast night. It's there cently of "Go To It." may go to Australia under the Tait management. Will says managers are postering him to death to go to work.

Sarah Bernhardt's leading man is a French soldier named Angelo who obtained a furlough in order to come to America and act in her plays. When Mme. Bernhardt's season is over he will return to the trenches.

THEY ALWAYS MADE

YOU PLAY THE SUPPER

MARCH AT THE

WHEN YOU WERE A BOY

"S'MATTER, POP?"

The Delay Will Give Willie a Chance to Plan How to Spend It!

HENRY HASENPFEFFER

It Merely Resolved Itself Into a Question of Endurance!

By Bud Counihan

By C. M. Payne

FLOOEY AND AXEL

The Villain Always Gets What's Coming to Him! (Next Week, "The Mysterious Bag")

" CURSES! THIS IS FOOLISH STUFF!

By Vie

I tell him he must careful be. He grins to show he understands and makes some motions with his hands and then starts in with might and main and soon I jump and scowl with pain. Some day I think my job I'll quit and polish shoes for just a bit. I want to get the chance to shine the ginks who hurt this corn of mine. I'll get them in my chair some way and when they squirm with pain I'll say: "At last I'm even, Joe for Petel."

STOCK JOKE GOES WRONG.

The Department."

"You're what?" asked the man. The henn are the rooster's better haff. She laze one egg pur day when eggs is pientyful and when you nede eggs is pientyful and when you nede eggs she quits. The henn onlie has know the Chief well."

"Gosh!" said Mr. Dodge, as be arose. "I wonder if they've deposed me lately."

Then he beat it.

STOCK JOKE GOES WRONG.

GOSSIP.

Eddie Cantor sang a new song with pruncs. Sum wimen are called they are ett in boarding howses along with pruncs. Sum wimen are called with pruncs. Sum wimen are called they are ett in boarding howses along with pruncs. Sum wimen are called they are ett in boarding howses along with pruncs. Sum wimen are called they are ett in boarding howses along with pruncs. Sum wimen are called they are ett in boarding howses along with pruncs. Sum wimen are called they are ett in boarding howses along with pruncs. Sum wimen are called they are ett in boarding howses along with pruncs. Sum wimen are called they are ett in boarding howses along with pruncs. Sum wimen are called they are ett in boarding howses along with pruncs. Sum wimen are called the man. The henn are the rooster's better haff. She laze one egg pur day when eggs is pientyful and when you nede eggs is pientyful and when you nede eggs she quits. The henn are the rooster's better haff. She laze one egg pur day when eggs is pientyful and when they are the rooster's better haff. She laze one egg pur day when eggs is pientyful and when they are the rooster's better haff. She laze one egg pur day when eggs is pientyful and when they are the rooster'

By Jack Callahan

THE EVENING WORLD'S

Dicky and Dot

in the "Wonder City"

By Mary Graham Bonner Copyright, 1916, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York Evening World.)

The Statue of Liberty HE little boat was rocking, for

I even within the harbor it was rough. "I feel almost as if I were going out to sea," said Dicky. "I would feel that way, too," said "Oh, dat's what yo means, eh? Ah Dot, "if there were not so many tugs thought yo meant ro lak a lion." and little boats all around." For and little boats all around." For Dicky and Dot were going to the Statue of Liberty.

As the boat got nearer, the statue eemed to grow larger. There it stood on an island-a great statue of a woman with a wreath around her bead, with one arm held up carrying families who came from all parts of a torch, which at night, they were the world to New York. told, was lighted.

After they got off the boat they walked up some steps and along a Uncle John. Up they went until they terrace by the statue. All around reached the foot of the statue. And them was water, and there was very little on the island besides the statue. There were queer winding steps which went around and around and looked like a corkscrew. "These steps John. And both the children followed. There they read a poem upon a tablet which had been written to the Statue of Liberty as a welcome to all. At first Dot was very corver.

Kiddie Klub Korner

CONDUCTED BY ELEANOR SCHORER

Cousin Eleanor's "Klub Kolumn"

DEAR COUSIN-KINS: D OZENS of you kid-dies write me saying. 'I sent in a the present contest.

Wonder City suggestion COUSIN ELEANOR. "Klub Pin." not heard from you."

I am sorry that it is not possible to write to each contributor to say whether or not his or her idea was the from a second but the lovely letter accepted. If you do not hear from a second whether thanks to you and the liveling would be seen but beautiful to the lovely letter accepted. manuscript you may be reasonably some time.

Now, if cousins wish suggestions returned in case of rejection it is expected that they will send a stamped envelope with each idea.

If an idea is accepted the author will receive a check on or about the Tuesday following its publication.

A great majority of those not accepted propose themes which have been published already. Aeroplanes, and the streams of clear water flows.

A great majority of those not accepted propose themes which have been published already. Aeroplanes, and the great is given below. sure that it was rejected.

The place of for and stuchins.
The place where transfer fee.
The place is called "The kiddle kinb,"
The place is called "The kindle kinb,"
The place for "The kindle kinb,"
No. 477 St. John's Place, Brookins.

the Aquarium, the Zoo and the Wool-worth tower are those that recur most frequently.

I hope that all members will bene-fit by these bits of information about

From Kiddies

The News.

The ketydid may in As tikin se can be And the triblets are single. And the triblets are single. It turber the trible eyes. It was read the same hint, but as clearly as I you had seen it in print. And the same hint, but is clearly as I wave in the sun. The same hint, but it wave in the sun. The same hint wave in the sun. That estiman is here
And estimate a dame
HENRY GROLL
322 Fac (one Hursder and Piferthird Street.
The Kiddles' Came of Tag.

for these Wonder Series Stories coniributed by Kiddle Klub members.
Suggest only itEAL, wonders which the big city.

Suggest only itEAL, wonders which the big city.

Suggest only itEAL wonders which the big city Editors Eventuage World, No. 4.

PARTIES, REMEMBER? HAROLD WILL BE SORE THIS OUR COATS ON-DERE WON'T WAY WHEN HE FINDS OUT ANY FRUIT (HILDREN! LEFT WHEN HOME WITHOUT PACKETS I'VE GOT HIS CIRL FOR MY THROUGH . PARTNER